THE SOUTHERN BAPTISTS MEET

Forty-Eighth Annual Session of the Southern Convention.

MISSION BOARD OUT OF DEBT

Seventeen Hundred and Sixty-Seven Delegates Were Present.

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—The forty-eighth annual session of the Southern Baptist Convention was called to order this morning in the First Baptist Church by President James P. Eagle, ex-Governor of Arkansas. The Auditorium was crowded, there being 1,767 delegates in attendance. Half an hour was given to devotional exercises.

An address of welcome to Georgia was delivered by Governor Terrell, to which Rev. E. P. Hale of Kentucky responded. Rev. John D. Jordan welcomed the delegates to Savannah.

On behalf of the convention, E. P. Hale of Kentucky responded.

The organization of the convention was effected as follows:

President—James Philip Eagle, Little Rock, Ark.

Vice Presidents—Edwin M. Stephens, Columbia, Mo.; George Hillyer, Atlanta, Ga.; R. C. Buckner, Texas; A. E. Owen, Portsmouth, Va.

Secretaries—Lansing Burrows, D. D., Nashville, Tenn.; Oliver F. Gregory, D. D., Baltimore, Md.

Treasurer—George W. Norton, Louisville, Ky.

Auditor—William P. Harvey, D. D., Louisville, Ky.

The only changes in the officers were among the Vice-Presidents; Vice-President Hillyer, Buckner, and Oliver being the new officers chosen.

Governor Eagle, in accepting the presidency of the Southern Baptist Convention, said:

"I would rather be President of the Southern Baptist Convention than to be President of the United States."

An interesting feature of the enrollment came about by the delegates from the Indian Territory, A. G. Washburn, a part Indian, insisting that he be recognized. He had not arrived in time to get his credentials in, but insisted that this was no fault of his. By his persistence he overcame the chair and the entire convention, and was recognized on the spot.

The report of the foreign mission board was received, showing that the church has missionaries in Mexico, Italy, Brazil, Africa, China and Japan. There has been but one death among them during the year. Rev. S. T. Williams died at Canton, China, April 1, of meningitis. Encouraging reports are made by all the missionaries.

FINANCIAL REPORT.

The financial report shows that Georgia has taken first place in contributing to this cause. The report of gross receipts for foreign missions is as follows:

Alabama, $16,426.05; Arkansas, 4,256.24; District of Columbia, 1,607.95; Florida, 2,203.41; Georgia, 33,165.03; Indian Territory, 229.36; Kentucky, 23,241.77; Louisiana, 4,896.56; Maryland, 7,143.85; Mississippi, 16,105.43; Missouri, 9,107.95; North Carolina, 15,541.20; Oklahoma, 251.67; South Carolina, 17,399.76; Tennessee, 9,341.30; Texas, 23,267.38; Virginia, 28,504.23.

The board does not now owe a cent, and carries a net balance of $19,621.23.

Dallas, Tex., and Nashville, Tenn., are both making strong bids for the Convention, and to-day Kentucky got in the game.

The only feature of the evening was the preaching of the Convention Sermon by Rev. W. J. Williamson of St. Louis.

NIGHT.

MRS. F. H. GUILLIAMS.

Oh, Night, Night, Night! all pale and wan

With watching through the hushed, dew-laden hours.

Art thou not sick to see the blushing dawn

Come tripping o'er the heads of sleeping flowers?

Alone and sad, upon a couch of down,

Rose strewn, and odorous with their rich perfume,

Thy pale cheek paler from thy star-gemmed crown,

And passionate sadness in thy eyes dark gloom.

Far famed Apollo, swift on shining wing,

Radiant with beauty, glorious with might,

Swept by thy couch o'er thy fair limbs to fling

Rapture of rest, oh fair and lovely night.

But ah, he filled thy soul with visions rare,

With dreams voluptuous and warm desires.

And then, love torn and lonely left thee there,

To be consumed by their unquenched fires.

Oh lover lost! Oh sad and weary night,

All faint with longing, and all pale with prayer,

Thy cheek confesses thy unhappy plight,

And tells the tale of love thy heart doth beat.

But when thy life holds naught for thee of bliss,

And thou art helpless with no strength or pride,

Then will he come, and with his magic kiss

Dissolve thy being in love's high full tide.

And now the rosy dawn fills all the skies

With radiance tender, hiding thee from sight.

Low in the west, the ghostly pale moon dies

And all thy dreams are drowned in floods of light.

Gainesville, Fla., May 7.

NO COURT THIS WEEK.

No Provisions Made for Holding Court in the New District.

During the past few days the question has been asked many times in Gainesville if court would convene today, but no one could answer the question, since the present legislature created a new judicial circuit for Florida—putting Alachua county in it—and made no provision for holding court in the same.

The regular spring term of the circuit court for this county should have convened here this morning, and would, but for the failure of the Legislature to make the necessary provisions when it formed the new circuit.

Hon. B. J. L. Alabon, the prosecuting attorney for the new circuit arriving in the city Sunday night, and during yesterday many witnesses and jurors who had been summoned put in appearances, but no one, not even the Bar Association of this city or the new prosecuting attorney, would dare to say whether or not court would convene to-day.

There seems to be but little more known this morning than was last night, and unless something to relieve the situation was done by the Legislature last night, Judge Wills will not convene court in the Eighth Circuit to-day.

Two Chapters.

Gainesville will now have two Chapters U. D. C. The opposing factions in Kirby Smith Chapter were each represented at the State Convention recently held in Madison, and one faction asked for a charter for a new chapter. This was vigorously opposed by the other faction, but without success. A charter was granted and a new Chapter will be organized.

Sam Jones at Opera House Tonight.

It has been a long time since the people of Gainesville have had an opportunity to hear this renowned lecturer and many will greet him tonight when he will lecture on "Facts, Philosophy and Fun." Admission, children 25 cents, adults 50 cents. Reserved seats on sale at Miller & Aver's for 25 cents extra. Be sure to secure a good seat.

James Smithson, whose bequest brought into existence the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, led a lonely life and died among strangers and was buried at Genoa, Italy. The authorities of that city are going to use the ground where he was buried for another purpose and have called for the removal of his remains. The regents of the Smithsonian Institution arranged for reinterment in another part of Genoa, but there is a general feeling in Washington that the remains should be brought to Washington and buried in the Smithsonian grounds. The suggestion is a reasonable one and may well be followed.

In view of the fact that there was no necessity for the blustering naval demonstration by Great Britain, Germany and Italy, it would appear that the powers which proceeded decently toward the collection of their claims against Venezuela should have as equal, if not preferential, standing as creditors.

Hon. Joe Chamberlain appears to be making a decided hit with the Boers in South Africa. This is doubtless because he has with him his talented and tactful American wife.

Sir Henry Maxim's declaration that the bank at Monte Carlo cannot be beaten is a maxim that some venture some people would do well to accept without question.

MR. CARPENTER ON WHISKEY

Speaks to the Voters of Alachua County

ON THE IMPORTANT QUESTION

Says Liquor Traffic is Worst Enemy of Man and Country.

To the Voters of Alachua County:

On the 2nd of June you will determine the question of the legalized saloon—whether it shall continue its work of ruin, or whether it shall be legally abolished. It is hoped that every man will so cast his vote as to bring him, in the future, no regrets. We who stand for the home, for morality and sobriety, feel sure that our position is absolutely right and just. The temperance people are on the right side of this question. There is nothing good that can be said in favor of the saloon. It is the only institution that imposes a heavy burden on taxpayers, for which there can be no reason given for its continuance, except the financial benefit that comes to the man who owns the business. All the argument is on our side, and we are perfectly willing and very anxious, to discuss the merits of the question on any platform in the county, with any respectable representative of the saloon interests. Please consider carefully the following statements made without any amplification:

In the first place, the saloon is an evil, nothing less. It does nothing for the benefit of society. It adds nothing at all to the good of men.

Secondly, it is a most fruitful source of crime and lawlessness. No other legal business carried on in this State produces a hundredth part as much crime.

And, in the third place, the saloon is an enemy of every home in the county; for every boy, yes, and I may say every girl, too, is endangered by its business.

Fourthly, it is a constant and determined enemy of the Church of God, which is the only institution in the world that can and does bring poor, fallen humanity into touch with the Infinite, and thereby save him from his sins.

And, in the fifth place, it is the enemy of progress and prosperity. It adds nothing to real estate values, but on the other hand depreciates value in every instance. It imposes a constantly increasing burden upon the man who pays the taxes, wringing his hard earned money from him, in the way of costs for punishing crime, and the care of criminals, made so by the saloon.

Men never advertise the number of saloons in any given locality as an inducement to secure settlers who will invest their money to help build up a town.

Sixthly, let me say that the saloon is the enemy of education and intellectual development. It cannot contribute anything toward inspiring its patrons to seek an education, nor is there anything about it that tends to the culture of the mind. Its tendencies are to debase the intellect, benumb the moral sensibilities, and inflame the animal passions of men.

Now, shall we continue this evil in our midst? Are we going to place our endorsement upon it and say it shall have the protection of law in order to carry on the work above mentioned? These are the questions you are to help to settle the 2nd day of June.

Very respectfully,

W. J. CARPENTER.

HAIR GROWER.

This is Very Wonderful if True—Try a Bottle and be Convinced.

Brooklyn N. Y., April 21, 99

Dr. S. B. Giddings.

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send my fifty cent bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and 98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,

J. W. HAYNES, 59 Hicks St.

State of Florida,

County of Alachua,

City of Gainesville.

Personally appeared before the subscriber, a Notary Public, in and for the State of Florida, at large, S. B. Haynes, a man whom he had never seen or heard of, also that he had no knowledge of the Unparalleled Hair Grower, and as far as he knows no one had influenced him to send it, and that the man has never received anything for sending it.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of November A. D. 1902.
